

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

AARON A. ELLIOTT,

Plaintiff,

v.

FRANK T. ELLIOTT, III, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:21-cv-00897-SAB

ORDER ENTERING STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

(ECF No. 37)

On April 6, 2022, the parties filed a stipulated protective order, and have requested the Court approve and enter the parties stipulated protective order. (ECF No. 37.) The Court has reviewed the stipulated agreement and finds good cause to approve and enter the protective order into the record of this action.

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to

1 the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the 2 applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3,
3 below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential
4 information under seal; Local Rules 140, 141 and 141.1 set forth the procedures that must 5 be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from 6 the court to file material under seal.

7 2. DEFINITIONS

8 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the 9 designation of information or items under this Order.

10 2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless 11 of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection
12 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

13 2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House
14 Counsel (as well as their support staff).

15 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information 16 or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 17 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

18 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information,
19 regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained 20 (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are 21 produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

22 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a
23 matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve 24 as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

25 2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this 26 action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 27 counsel.

28 2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association,

1 or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

2 2.9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a
3 party to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have 4 appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has 5 appeared on behalf of that party.

6 2.10 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors,
7 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 8 support staffs).

9 2.11 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 10 Discovery Material in this action.

11 2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 12 support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 13 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and 14 their employees and subcontractors.

15 2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 16 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL."

17 2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery
18 Material from a Producing Party.

19 3. SCOPE

20 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only
21 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted
22 from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected
23 Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their 24 Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this 25 Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is 26 in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the 27 public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not 28 involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that

1 it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 2 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

3 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided
4 in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise
5 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under 6 this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

7 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

8 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 9 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), 10 that the Producing Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains 11 protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 12 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., 13 by making appropriate markings in the margins).

14 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available
15 for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 16 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 17 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 18 “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants
19 copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions
20 thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified
21 documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page
22 that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page
23 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected 24 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

25 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial
26 proceedings, that the Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the 27 deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony.

28 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to

1 explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the 2 next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process
3 first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and 4 confer process in a timely manner.

5 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge
6 without court intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain 7 confidentiality within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the 8 parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, whichever
9 is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming 10 that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the 11 preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion including 12 the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall automatically
13 waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the 14 Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time 15 if there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a 16 deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this 17 provision must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the movant has 18 complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

19 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 20 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., 21 to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the 22 Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the 23 confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described 24 above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection
25 to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the 26 challenge.

27 ///

28 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

1 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that 2 is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case
3 only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected
4 Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions
5 described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must 6 comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

7 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 8 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons
9 authorized under this Order.

10 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 11 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 12 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” 13 only to:

14 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as 15 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary
16 to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment 17 and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

18 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of 19 the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and 20 who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

21 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 22 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 23 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

24 (d) the court and its personnel;

25 (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, 26 mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 27 this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
28 (Exhibit A);

1 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure
2 is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 3 Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by 4 the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal
5 Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be 6 disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and

7 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 8 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

9 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED
10 PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

11 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other 12 litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 13 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

14 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification
15 shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

16 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or 17 order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the 18 subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a 19 copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 20 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 21 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

22 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served 23 with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 24 action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the 25 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s 26 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 27 protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions
28 should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to 1 disobey a lawful directive from another court.

2 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE
3 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

4 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a
5 Non-Party in this action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such information
6 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies
7 and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as 8 prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

9 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 10 produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject
11 to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential
12 information, then the Party shall:

13 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party
14 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement
15 with a Non-Party;

16 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated
17 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 18 specific description of the information requested; and

19 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-20 Party.

21 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this 22 court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the 23 Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the 24 discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party 25 shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 26 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.
27 Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 28 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Local Rules 141 and 141.1. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Local Rules 141 and 141.1, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Local Rules 141 and 141.1 is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Rules 140 and 141 unless otherwise instructed by the court.

13. FINAL DISPOSITION

Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute

Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4
(DURATION).

COURT ORDER ENTERING STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to the stipulation of the parties, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The above stipulated protective order filed on April 6, 2022 (ECF No. 37), is entered;
2. The parties are advised that pursuant to the Local Rules of the United States District Court, Eastern District of California, any documents which are to be filed under seal will require a written request which complies with Local Rule 141;
3. The party making a request to file documents under seal shall be required to show either good cause or compelling reasons to seal the documents, depending on the type of filing, Pintos v. Pacific Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-78 (9th Cir. 2009); Ctr. for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Grp., LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1101 (9th Cir. 2016); and
4. If a party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the Court, then the previously filed material shall be immediately accepted by the court and become information in the public record and the information will be deemed filed as of the date that the request to file the Protected Information under seal was made.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
